

The Heritage Network
Board of Directors
August 21, 2017
Colville Public Library

Meeting was called to order by President Joe Barreca at the Colville Public Library at 9:30.

Present: Attending were Joe Barreca, Bill Sebright, Susan Dechant, Karen Struve, Sue Richart, Kathy Berrigan.

Minutes of the last meeting: Susan moved and Bill seconded a motion to approve the minutes.

Next Meeting: Next meeting in September set at Northport and October set for Clayton.

Financial Report: Sue circulated the financial report. Main checking is at $4037.46. Susan Dechant asked about the other assets and Sue Richart said she would check the records.

Northeast Washington Insider app. The City of Colville approved the second payment covering work done by the Northport Historical Society and one hundred additional points that Tri County Economic Development paid at our request.

Board took a break and used Karen Struve eclipse glasses to view the solar eclipse impacting our area.

New Business:

Around the Table.

Sue Richart received a copy of Charles A. Geyer's drawing in 1844 of Tshimakain Mission from the Clifford Drury collection at WSU. She has also dropped off Book A of the Stevens County Commissioners Journal to the Washington State Archives.

Clayton-Deer Park Historical Society reported that Settler's Days were successful and the Brickyard Days were this coming weekend.

KFHS: The church that was rented their space has moved to a bigger location. A temporary area for storage will be built. The society has better communications with the Colville Tribe. Chris Anderson is working on a display tipi.

NEWGS: Susan will be presenting an interesting case at the next NEWGS meeting regarding the death of one of the workers. She is continuing to work on the Sherman Pass book. Bill Dollarhide presentation will be September 16th at the Ambulance Shack in Colville.

Chewelah Historical Society: The society is reforming as a 501c3 and is in the process of getting their state corporation status.

SCHS: The theme of the Keller House tour the first weekend in December is An Evergreen Christmas.

The meeting adjourned at 11:10.